

Importing Personal Property into

BRAZIL

IMPORTING HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

DUTY-FREE ENTRY IS PERMITTED IF THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS ARE MET:

- The items have been owned and used by the shipper for at least 6 months and are not for re-sale.
- One air and one ground shipment is permitted, provided that the shipments contain used furniture, articles for domestic use; and machines, tools and instruments needed in the shipper's profession.

Notes:

- Returning Brazilian Citizens or Immigrants with a Permanent Visa must have lived abroad for more than 365 days. They must provide a Residence Certificate obtained from the Brazilian Embassy or Consulate or proof of residence in Brazil (utilities bills, rental contract, etc.).
- Immigrants with temporary visa (Work visa) with a work contract in Brazil have to post a bond or pay duty of 50% over declared value of the goods.
- Do not send a shipment before the customer has obtained his/ her visa. A shipment cannot be cleared under a tourist visa, under any conditions.
- Customs clearance can proceed once the shipper has arrived in Brazil.
- The shipment must arrive within the time frame of 90 days before or 180 days after the arrival of the shipper.
- The shipper's airline ticket used to arrive in Brazil is required for customs clearance.

- The shipment must originate from the shipper's city of last residence or from the country listed in his or her visa.
- Fumigation Certificates notarized by a Brazilian Consulate are required for all wooden materials used in packing air and ground shipments originating from USA, China, Hong Kong, Japan, North and South Korea. Therefore, it is recommended to avoid using wooden packing materials, including liftvans and crates. If wooden materials are used, the Fumigation Certificate must be obtained 15 days or less from the date of departure. If wooden packing materials arrive in Brazil without the appropriate certificate, then the contents will be incinerated or possibly fumigated at the shipper's expense.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

- A Public Notary in Brazil must legalize all documents and signatures.
- All shipments require a signed, detailed * Inventory List (original and 2 copies) translated into Portuguese. Values should be listed in US dollars. Inventory list must include ALL items in shipment and pets. All electrical, electronic, mechanical or optical devices (including computers) must be listed with their brand, model, serial numbers and dates of manufacture. Separate lists must be made for new and used goods.
 - Goods not included on the inventory, but included in the shipment will likely delay your shipment at customs and be subject to very high taxes and duties.
